Justice Steers, in the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsburg, to-day, held George Arnold, of 28 Ellery street, on a charge of failing to support his wife. The evidence in the case showed that all concerned were most remarkably depraved.

Arnold is a bayman, and three years ago ne met Annie Stencon in Williamsburg, and took her back to Hammel's Station, Rockaway Beach, where they ived together as man and wife.

Last Summer Maggie Stencon, who wenty years old, three years younger nan her sister Annie, was invited to send the Summer at Rockaway. She the, and in addition fell in love with e man she regarded as her brother-in-

Capt, Early went to the desk and first scanned the record of the description of a man who had attempted to ret into the house of Dennis Daly, at 62 Dean street, early yesterday morning. He then scanned McQuade.

Capt, Early touched a button and sent for Daly. As soon as Daly saw McQuade he identified him as the man whom he caught attempting burglary. Daly says he was awakened by some one trying to unfasten one of the shutters.

Daly went down to where the man was, clinched with the intruder and forced him out upon the sidewalk. He then pounded his face against the cold stones of the walk until the would-be robber cried for mercy. He then let him go.

Daly said he would have taken the Big Chances Taken by One of Gang That Assailed a Policeman. Amity street station, Brooklyn, has Daily said he would have taken the man to the station-house, but was not suitably dressed to do so.
